Counseling for discriminated individuals

We support people who are discriminated based on their nationality, skin color, religion or language.

We advise people who observe racist discrimination or are themselves accused of acting in a racist manner.

We advise professionals on issues related to racial discrimination.

The counseling sessions take place in person, by telephone, or in written form and are available to all residents of the cantons of Schwyz and Uri.

Personal counseling sessions take place at komin in Pfäffikon and Goldau or, if needed, in the canton of Uri.
